BALTIMORE—FRIDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1824.

Improved State of the Wheels.

GRAND STATE LOTTERY. The 3d drawing of this splendid scheme took place yesterday, and notwithstanding the unusually large number of Floating prizes in the wheel, only one of any importance came out; No. 3217, a prize of ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS, as will be noticed on reference to our Official List on the next page.—This drawing was highly favourable, as it increases the interest of the succeeding one, which will take place ON THURSDAY NEXT, the 9th inst. when we anticipate a more splendid distribution.—The sales of Tickets continue very brisk—the Commissioners will progress with the drawing EVERY WEEK. This Lottery, the most brilliant in the United States, has met the most decided approbation of the public, and the demand for Tickets is still increasing—we would recommend those of our distant friends who are not yet supplied to send on their orders without delay, in order to secure to themselves those advantages which are the result of early investments.

SHARE TICKETS. The unprecedented success of share tickets in the last Grand State Lottery at COHEN'S OFFICE, where the great capital prizes of, $100,000, 20,000, 10,000, 5000, were ALL SOLD, in HALVES, QUARTERS and EIGHTHS, has caused an unusual great demand for shares in the present GRAND STATE LOTTERY—We shall endeavour to keep as full a variety of Numbers, as the reduced stock of whole tickets will permit, and will continue to furnish them as heretofore at the same rate in proportion as the whole tickets, viz.

☞ TWELVE DOLLARS is the price of a whole ticket, which may produce FORTY THOUSAND DOLLARS!

☞ SIX DOLLARS for an half ticket, which may produce TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS!

☞ THREE DOLLARS for a quarter ticket, which may produce TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS!

☞ ONE DOLLAR and Fifty cents for an eighth ticket, which may produce FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS!

All orders for tickets from any part of the Union will as usual meet our accustomed prompt attention by first mail. Our friends will be particular in directing their letters to J. I. COHEN, JR.

114. Market-street, Baltimore.

Remittances to Cohen's Office.

Distant adventurers may at all times with confidence forward their remittances to COHEN'S OFFICE, for if the great Capitals in the scheme should be drawn when their orders arrive, and the state of the wheel not justify an investment, the amount enclosed will be returned by the first mail, or will be invested in some other scheme about to be drawn, if the adventurer should so direct.

Direction of Letters.—We beg permission to request our friends and customers residing in distant places, to be particular in directing their letters to J. I. COHEN JR. BALTIMORE. It will thereby prevent mistakes in being sent to another office, the name of which on paper, appears similar, and to which we understand, several letters have heretofore been directed on the supposition that the name was ours.

BRANCH BANK, U. S.—At a meeting of the Directors of the U. S. Bank at Philadelphia, 27th ult. the following gentlemen were appointed Directors of the Office of Discount and Deposit in Baltimore:—John Donnell, Solomon Betts, F. W. Brune, R. H. Douglass, Robert Gilmore, Alexander Brown, James Hutton, Samuel McDonald, George Patterson, R. H. Osgood, James Barroll, Talbot Jones, David T. McKim.

CONGRESS will assemble at Washington, on Monday next.—The Legislature of Maryland will convene at Annapolis on the same day.

GEN. LA FAYETTE.—Baltimore has had again the honour to receive, with the most heartfelt welcome, the Guest of the Nation. He arrived on the 24th ult. under an escort from Washington City, and on alighting at the Fountain Hotel he was greeted by the cheers of a crowd of citizens who, notwithstanding the hour, remained with anxiety to witness his arrival. At the Hotel, the Mayor and Committee of Arrangement were in waiting to receive the General, and in the name of the city to express the satisfaction which his presence diffused—he was then conducted to his apartments, which the Corporation with great propriety hold for the General's exclusive use whenever he visits Baltimore. He found his apartments in the same state of elegance and comfort as when he left them in October.

The following day he attended the Cattle Show of the Maryland Agricultural Society, where he distributed the premiums awarded by the Society for those superior specimens exhibited of Agricultural and Domestic Industry, &c.—The proceedings growing out of the distribution of premiums, the Oration, the Society Dinner, &c. we learn were of the most interesting and gratifying character, but our limits will not permit a detail.—Upon returning to the city, the General was met upon the turnpike road some distance from the city, by the handsome corps of riflemen, the La Fayette Cadets captain YOUNG, and the La Fayette Chasseurs, capt. LATROBE—and by them escorted into the city to his lodgings. At seven o'clock he repaired to the THEATRE, and upon his entrance was received with the most enthusiastic tokens of welcome by a respectable and crowded audience. The stage box on the left hand, and the one adjoining, were occupied by the General and suite, and were handsomely and appropriately decorated with flags, &c.

After remaining in the City four days, during which time he partook of the hospitalities and respects paid him by our citizens, he set out on Monday last on his return to Washington, where we understand he will remain some time.—He was accompanied in a post coach and four by a Committee of our Corporation, under escort of the regiment of National Guards, in full uniform, commanded by Col. Miltenberger, who proceeded to the city line, and the First Baltimore Hussars, under command of capt. Mullikin, who proceeded to Elk Ridge, where the General was received by the troop commanded by Capt. Hollingsworth.

Miscellaneous Intelligence.

New Loan.—The Secretary of the Treasury of the United States, has issued proposals for a loan of five millions of dollars, in pursuance of an act of Congress, passed at the last session.—The object is merely to convert stock to that amount, now bearing an interest of six per cent. into stock bearing an interest of four and a half per cent.—by which a saving will be effected to the U. States of $75,000 a year.

North Carolina 74. Norfolk Nov. 22.—The U. States' ship North Carolina, of 74 guns, Captain

Morgan, was towed down from the Navy Yard at Gosport on Saturday last, by the Steam Boats Virginia and Petersburg, and moored at the usual anchorage of our National vessels between Forts Nelson and Norfolk. It was a very gratifying spectacle to our citizens, who witnessed the ease with which she glided through the water, not meeting with the slightest obstruction. The view of this fine ship at anchor off our town is the more attractive from the circumstance of her being the first American line of battle ship that has ever occupied her present anchorage.

The North Carolina is destined to the Mediterranean, where she will bear the broad pendant of Commodore JOHN RODGERS.

Nothing like leather.—The schooner Eliza has returned to New York from the Mediterranean, after an absence of six months. It will be recollected that this is the first vessel sheathed with leather. We learn that the experiment has fully equalled the expectations of those who suggested the plan.

Literary.—“LIONEL LINCOLN,” the first of a series of national tales entitled “Legends of the Thirteen Republics,” and which it is understood are to be given to the public by the author of the Spy, Pioneer, &c. is now in the press of Charles Wiley, New York, and will be out early in December. This first of the series, embraces that portion of American history between the passage of the Stamp Act, and subsequent to the battle of Bunker Hill. The scenes are principally in Massachusetts.

Indian Jurisprudence.—The Cherokees it is said, have established something like a judiciary system, and introduced into their society, many of the laws and usages of civilization. As a specimen of the manner in which they dispense justice in cases of trivial import, we relate the following anecdote, said to be authentic.—Cheraw Int.

An Indian assaulted another, of which regular information was made. The judge ordered the sheriff to bring the parties before him.—The sheriff went in pursuit of them, but returned without them. ‘Where are your prisoners,’ said the judge. ‘I caught them,’ replied the sheriff. ‘What did you do with them?’ ‘I gave the defendant fifteen lashes.’ ‘What did you do with the plaintiff?’ ‘Gave him fifteen too.’ ‘What with the informer or witness?’ ‘Why I gave him twenty-five lashes, for had he held his tongue, there would have been none of this fuss and trouble.’ It would be well if all the dispensations of justice could be equally and promptly administered.

Slander.—At the last Supreme Court held at Salem, Mass. an action was brought against the Hon. Benjamin Osgood, of Methuen, for slandering the character of Miss Sophia W. Bodwell, of the same place. The jury brought in a verdict of one thousand four hundred dollars damages against the defendant.

Ingenious Escape.—A few days since a convict in the Massachusetts state prison, was directed to make a large sofa. He made it with a false bottom and stuffed it with some light materials. In the space formed between the top and the lower bottom, he contrived to introduce his body, at the time when the waggoner came to take away the piece of furniture. He was a small man and his weight was not sufficient to produce any suspicion in the mind of the driver. The sofa thus loaded was accordingly stowed away in the baggage waggon, and our hero effected his escape in a manner that for some time eluded the detection of the officers.

Canal Revenue.—The Albany Daily Advertiser says that the toll already received this season amount to upwards of $300,000; and that the proceeds of toll on the northern canal amounts to more than the interest of the money which it originally cost.
